Federal Acquisition Regulation

they are on letter contracts or the definitive contracts that supersede letter contracts.

32.501-3 Contract price.

- (a) For the purpose of making progress payments and determining the limitation on progress payments, the contract price shall be as follows:
- (1) Under firm-fixed-price contracts, the contract price is the current contract price plus any unpriced modifications for which funds have been obligated.
- (2) If the contract is redeterminable or subject to economic price adjustment, the contract price is the initial price until modified.
- (3) Under a fixed-price incentive contract, the contract price is the target price plus any unpriced modifications for which funds have been obligated. However, if the contractor's properly incurred costs exceed the target price, the contracting officer may provisionally increase the price up to the ceiling or maximum price.
- (4) Under a letter contract, the contract price is the maximum amount obligated by the contract as modified.
- (5) Under an unpriced order issued against a basic ordering agreement, the contract price is the maximum amount obligated by the order, as modified.
- (6) Any portion of the contract specifically providing for reimbursement of costs only shall be excluded from the contract price.
- (b) The contracting officer shall not make progress payments or increase the contract price beyond the funds obligated under the contract, as amended.

32.501-4 [Reserved]

32.501-5 Other protective terms.

If the contracting officer considers it necessary for protection of the Government's interest, protective terms such as the following may be used in addition to the Progress Payments clause of the contract:

- (a) Personal or corporate guarantees.
- (b) Subordinations or standbys of indebtedness.
 - (c) Special bank accounts.

- (d) Protective covenants of the kinds in paragraph (p) of the clause at 52.232–12, Advance Payments.
- (e) A provision, included in the solicitation and resultant contract when first article testing is required (see subpart 9.3), limiting progress payments on first article work by a stated amount or percentage.

32.502 Preaward matters.

This section covers matters that generally are relevant only before contract award. This does not preclude taking actions discussed here after award, if appropriate; e.g., postaward addition of a Progress Payments clause for consideration

32.502-1 Use of customary progress payments.

The contracting officer may use a Progress Payments clause in solicitations and contracts, in accordance with this subpart. The contracting officer must reject as nonresponsive bids conditioned on progress payments when the solicitation did not provide for progress payments.

32.502-2 Contract finance office clearance.

The contracting officer shall obtain the approval of the contract finance office or other offices designated under agency procedures before taking any of the following actions:

- (a) Providing a progress payment rate higher than the customary rate (see 32.501-1).
- (b) Deviating from the progress payments terms prescribed in this part.
- (c) Providing progress payments to a contractor—
- (1) Whose financial condition is in doubt;
- (2) Who has had an advance payment request or loan guarantee denied for financial reasons (or approved but withdrawn or lapsed) within the previous 12 months; or
- (3) Who is named in the consolidated list of contractors indebted to the United States (known commonly as the Hold-up List).
